NOTED MOVIE STAR TO VISIT CITY

The Phoenix Amusement Co., always desirous of sending the best attractions to their theatres over the state, has made arrangements with the Metro Picture Corporation for the appearance of Miss Ruth Stonehouse in person at the Richmond theatres for one night's engagement, Saturday, January 7. This will prove a treat for the movie fans of Richmond, as it is seldom that towns of this size are favored with a visit of such a celebrated actress.

Miss Stonehouse was one of the first to gain world-wide fame in the movies and scored a big hit with Francis X. Bushman in "The Slim Princess." She is one of the few women who has grown up with the movie profession and still holds her own in the forefront as a star of prominence. Besides being one of the highest salaried movie stars of today, she is recognized everywhere as a character of lovable traits, and a favorite of the silver sheet.

PENROSE BURIED IN SECRET FUNERAL

(By Associated Press)
Philadelphia, Jan. 5.—Senator Boise Penrose was buried here today. Great secrecy shrouded the obsequies. His three brothers came to the Penrose home about 7:30. Fifteen minutes later the hearse and four automobiles started for the cemetery where they stayed 15 minutes. Reporters were not allowed in the house or at the cemetery. It is said to be a tradition in the Penrose family that funerals of its members be secret.

Former Attorney General Mills M. Logan has joined the law firm of T. W. and R. C. P. Thomas at Bowling Green.

HARRY POWELL TELLS WATSON A TALE

Local Photographer Says Another Soldier Told Him U. S. Barrage Killed Our Boys

Much interest is given the investigation which the United States Senate is conducting into alleged illegal executions of soldiers in France by publication from Washington of a letter written by Harry J. Powell, of Richmond, on the subject.

Mr. Powell is a well known young photographer on Main street. He served during the war and made a good record. He wrote to Senator Tom Watson, of Georgia, who started the investigation. The dispatch from Washington told of M. Powell's letter as follows:

That American soldiers were forced by a barrage laid behind them to go into action on the very morning the armistice was signed, and that many of them were killed by the fire from their own artillery is the substance of highly sensational allegations contained in a letter received by Senator Watson, of Georgia, from Harry J. Powell, business man, of Richmond, Ky.

The Kentuckyian's story comes as the climax of a series of harrowing accusations against American officers. His letter is as follows:

"In the light of your recent disclosures I think it fitting to give you an account of what I regard as an outrage second to none of which I have heard. I shall tell it to you just as the soldier has told it to me tonight.

"This shameful occurrence was on November 11, 1918, from 4 a. m. until 11 a. m. when the armistice was signed. It was at the battle of St. Mihiel and the outfit was the Seventh Division, Fifth Kentucky and Indiana Infantry, in charge of Col. Fict and Capt. (later Major) Siebels. Those in command of this outfit received orders November 9, 1918, from headquarters to hold the front until the eleventh, but to do no more fighting.

"At 4 a. m. November 11, 1918, Major Siebels ordered a battalion of 1,200 men to advance on Germans entrenched in a wheat field one-half mile away. Also, Germans, with machine guns, were fixed at many places behind barbed wire entanglements in the intervening distance between the United States soldiers and the Germans in the wheat field.

"After giving this order Major Siebels retired to his dugout, but before retiring to a safe place he ordered the heavy artillery to put a barrage behind the men to force them forward. They ran into the barbed wire with the deadly barrage on their heels. This barrage followed them from behind faster than they could run, killing them right and left.

"The usual barrage in front of the men was not used at all. This barrage in front was frequently used heretofore to blow up the barbed wire entanglements so the soldiers could get through. But it was not used this time. Many men were caught in this barbed wire and killed by their own artillery fire. Some went one to two miles, to the right or left to avoid the barbed wire. Others went straight thru and reached the wheat field, the artillery fire still on their heels. I will say here that the artillery fire was one and one-half miles behind the point from which the men started.

"In the wheat field the United States soldiers were still killed off by the fire from their own artillery. Not only this, but the Germans, surprised at an attack during the truce, preceding the armistice, opened fire on the United States soldiers with machine guns, killing many. This artillery fire continued until 11 a. m. when the armistice was signed and then shell fire ceased.

"In this advance 500 United States soldiers were killed and 400 were wounded. The remaining 300 men of the first 1,200 escaped injury by hiding in shell-holes. The artillery fire, when discovered that it was killing their own men, instead of forcing them forward, was changed by Sergt. Smith, who ordered this fire off the men. Major Siebels had retired to a safe place,

DEFEAT OF IRISH TREATY PREDICTED

(By Associated Press)
London, Jan. 5.—A Central News Dublin dispatch today quotes J. J. Walsh, a member of the Dail Eireann, saying: "I can definitely state, as the position now stands, the Irish treaty will be defeated by at least two votes."

Looks Like Deadlock

(By Associated Press)
Dublin, Ireland, Jan. 5.—The Dail Eireann was still deadlocked on the Irish treaty when it met here this afternoon. Just prior to the meeting it was learned a joint session of the leaders opposing and favoring the treaty canvassed various possibilities of reaching an agreement without result. After a brief session the Dail adjourned until tomorrow.

TOBACCO BILL PASSES SENATE

(By Associated Press)
Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 5.—The Bingham cooperative marketing act passed the Senate today by a vote of 33 to 0. The measure was sent to the House so it could be put on its final passage Friday. This measure is of great interest to tobacco growers.

SAPIRO TO SPEAK TO HOUSE FRIDAY

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 5.—Aaron Sapiro, California marketing expert, and a principal figure in the organization of the co-operative marketing association, is expected here Friday to make a speech before the House concerning the purposes and methods of the organization.

Speaker James H. Thompson labored far into the night, completing the arduous task of naming his committees, identity of which was promised for Thursday. He said it had been his policy to place members on the committees which they preferred wherever possible.

The important Committee on Agriculture, which reported favorably on the burley bill in the House Wednesday, is headed by one of the youngest representatives in that branch, Rufus Lisle, of Jessamine county. Mr. Lisle was elected to succeed Senator Thomas R. Welch, of Nicholasville, who was sent back to the Senate from the Jessamine-Scott Woodford district, after representing Jessamine county in the lower branch for several terms.

Close observers were predicting that the Senate would refuse to concur in the joint resolution, introduced today by Representative Herman O. Thompson, republican, asking for the investigation of the sending of state troops to Newport to patrol an area surrounding a steel mill, where a strike has led to riotous conditions and indiscriminate firing. This resolution prevailed in the House by a vote of 55 to 33.

It was said that four or five democratic Senators would oppose the investigation, on the ground that Gov. Edwin P. Morrow's action in sending state troops was proper, in view of the fact that continued firing into houses of citizens by both parties to the controversy had been unchecked by the local authorities at Newport.

A bill levying a tax of 10 cents state the funds accruing from a ton on coal shipped out of this source to create a bonus fund for the Kentucky soldiers who served in the world war, was introduced in the House by Representative A. G. Wheeler, of Warren county. He believes that the Kentucky boys who were in the world war should receive a bonus and said today that he knew of no better way to raise the funds for this purpose than by taxing the coal shipped out of the state.

State Fair Dates Are Fixed; Admission Cut

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 5.—The State Fair dates for 1922 were fixed as September 11 to 16, at a meeting of the board. On motion of G. Carney Cross, Secretary, the board cut the admission fee from 75 to 50 cents.

AT WORK ON ANOTHER LEGION MINSTREL

"Gov." Bowen and Gordon Hunt Here To Coach Local Stars For Big Performance

"Gov." Bowen, the minstrel king, and Gordon Hunt, of Lexington, arrived in Richmond Tuesday and were greeted by the many friends they made here last season. They have been engaged to help the local post of the American Legion put on another minstrel show January 17 and 18. Everyone remembers the splendid show "Gov." and the boys put on last season, and judging from the interest manifested in the two rehearsals held in the Legion room this week, the show promises to surpass any local talent performance ever given here. All the boys are full of pep and as this is the first opportunity they have had in many months to display their talents, the time seems just ripe for them to excel themselves as never before.

"Gov." brought with him a splendid program of songs for both blackface and the whites. The choruses to be used in the opening are "live ones," "Coon songs" were assigned to several of the comedians at the rehearsal last night. "Baby" Tom Baxter will sing "They're Such Nice People," "Weekie" Stanifer will sing "Strut Miss Lizzie" and "Bill" Elder will get the band on "Down Yonder."

Mr. and Mrs. James Leeds assisted by other members of the elder orchestra, are furnishing music for the rehearsals and with the splendid coaching of Gordon Hunt the boys will soon be in trim for the "fray."

Lewis Dumbler is in charge of the advertising program this year and the merchants are responding liberally. Already his canvass is nearing completion, but if any merchant has been overlooking Mr. Dumbler as well as the Legion boys will appreciate it if they will notify them and they will call for their ad at once.

Earl Combs' Picture In Courier-Journal

The Courier-Journal had a good picture of Earl Combs, Normal star, this week, with the following comment: One of the many promising recruits to go south with the Colonels in the spring will be Earl Combs, of Richmond, Ky. Combs will try for a berth in the outfield. He can also play second base or shortstop. After finishing the season with the Eastern Kentucky State Normal team he played independent ball. In 26 games with the college nine Combs batted .591. Combs is 22 years old, weighs 170 pounds, and is 6 feet tall.

Company To Drill For Oil In Palestine

(By Associated Press)
Jerusalem, Jan. 5.—Great interest has been aroused here by a semi-official announcement that an agreement has been reached between the British government and a group of men representing the Zionist organization for the exploitation of lands lying beyond the River Jordan and the Dead Sea. It has always been known that proper development would reveal the presence of oils and other minerals in great quantity in that section of the country.

leaving no orders except the first one.

"When the word spread among the 5,000 reserves that the artillery had shelled their own men from 5 a. m. to 6 a. m. they were greatly incensed and spoke in strong terms against Major Siebels. Major Siebels ordered that if another soldier spoke or said anything about this affair they would be court-martialed." So nothing more was heard of it.

"The soldier who has told me of this is Marcus O. Howard, of West Liberty, Ky. He says he will produce eye witnesses to corroborate every word he has said and that he is at your command in case you need him."

LEGISLATURE'S ACTION PLEASES JIM STONE

President and General Manager James C. Stone, of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association, commenting on the action of the legislature in facilitating the introduction and reference of the Bingham co-operative marketing act, declared it showed that the legislature is "alive to the needs and is keenly interested in the welfare of the Kentucky farmers." Mr. Stone said that the growers of tobacco in the pool would appreciate the consideration shown them by the legislature.

"The action of the assembly," said Mr. Stone, "clearly shows that the members of both houses are keenly alive to the needs of the farmers and deeply interested in their welfare. We do not anticipate any opposition to the enactment of the bill, since it will be of immense benefit to so many citizens of Kentucky and of harm to none. We are of the opinion that the new system of marketing, once thoroughly protected from any doubt as to its legality, will be such a helpful factor in bettering business in the burley district as to bring prosperity to the tobacco growers and to all who do business with them."

The members of the association are, of course, greatly pleased that the assembly gave out the right of way and that the governor recommended it in his message. Under its operation we are all looking forward to better living and business conditions in every county of Kentucky which produces burley tobacco, which we believe will be inevitable under a proper modern system of marketing our tobacco.

President Stone and his associates are still engaged in working out a grading system, which must be established before the pooled crop can be received and advances made to the growers on their tobacco. Samples of tobacco from all parts of the district have been sent in for this purpose.

Directors W. H. Snook, of Indiana, and O. C. Ellis, of Ohio, are in Lexington in conference with officials of the organization.

Leaf Crop Brings $48.75 Average At Lexington

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 5.—The highest priced crop of tobacco sold on the Lexington market this season, that of Francis Simmons, of Franklin county, containing 265 pounds, Wednesday afternoon brought an average of $48.75 the 100 pounds. The high basket of the season, weighing seventy pounds, also from the Simmons crop, sold for an average of $68.

"Four Horsemen of Apocalypse" Strikes Home To Hearts of All Present

"The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" scored a success at the opera house Wednesday. This notable offering has undoubtedly caught the public fancy and few pictures ever seen here have created so much interest and discussion.

The attainment of Julio and Marguerite is a tribute to the inherent good in men and women when it is aroused. Julio gives his life for France and Marguerite devotes her life to her husband, the blind Laurier.

The story of Julio, the master, and of Marguerite, the butterfly, illustrates a poignant fact in life. When one does wrong the hurt is not confined to one's self, but it is shared by nearly breaks his father's heart. It is only when Julio, an Argentinian by birth and not compelled to enter the French army, becomes a patriot, prepared to fight for his father's France, that Marcello Desprez, realizes the intimate good in his boy, and the reconciliation between father and son, after the terrible days of the German occupation of Villeblanche, on the Marne, is one of the most affecting scenes of the remarkable presentation of remarkable characterizations.

So much of the heart story in the spectacular scenes there is a complete richness, a richness of detail, a richness of intensity that only takes one's breath, and in the few details of the battle of the Marne that are shown there is a vividness and reality that has never been equaled on the screen.

An appropriate feature of the whole showing is the orchestral music and solo by Miss Josephine Forsythe. The music is ably conducted by Mr. Haskins.

"FOUR HORSEMAN" RIDES IN RUSSIA

(By Associated Press)

Moscow, Jan. 5.—Russia began the year with eight months of unrelenting horror before her and a terrible drought that next summer's crop may only slightly relieve the gnawing famine. At Tseretzin, Saratoff, Samara, Orel, Orsk and Kazan frozen bodies are stacked high awaiting burial in trenches which work men cannot prepare fast enough for the victims of famine, exposure and typhus and every day the situation is growing worse.

American relief workers, who compassionately placed the number of probable deaths in the famine area this winter at 2,000,000, now say 5,000,000 is a low estimate, and they may reach 10,000,000 or even more. This is particularly possible since the shortage of horses, oxen and grain makes it impossible to reach the remote sections, and it is predicted the typhus epidemic will probably be the worst Russia has suffered.

Representative Drury, of Union county, is one member of the House at Frankfort who always he counted on to give the members something to think about. He's impregnable with the apparent needs of the State University and the Normal schools, but of course realizes that the money must be provided in some way other than in trying to price it out of the jeans of the farmer who is already taxed to death. So he is planning to offer a bill that would place a fee of $25 on each suit for divorce and give the proceeds to the university. Through the education of the future "marriageables" he would bring about a reduction in the annual divorce list.

Attend Reception

Visiting friends here will be interested in the following: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Shanks, who arrived in the Stanford Hotel on Saturday last.

Logan avenue was the scene of a most enjoyable surprise party Tuesday when Mrs. W. H. Shanks gave a buffet luncheon in honor of her husband, Hon. W. H. Shanks, in celebration of his 49th birthday. Mr. Shanks had been informed that a few friends would gather for the noon meal and he was surprised when he went home and found some 35 or 40 of his closest friends there by invitation from his better half. A brief period was spent in conversation and then the feast of good things was enjoyed. It was a three-course luncheon, the first of which was a meat course, the second a salad course and the third an ice course. It was a grand meal, beautifully and faultlessly served. At its close Mrs. Shanks brought in a huge cake bearing 49 burning candles and for the first time perhaps in his life genial Will Shanks realized that he was growing old. That was the only unhappy thought of the very happy occasion. The beautiful home was made even more appealing to the eye by the artistic decorations—the color

CRAMPS, PAINS AND BACKACHE

St. Louis Woman Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

St. Louis, Mo.—"I was bothered with cramps and pains every month and had to go to bed as I could not work. My mother and my whole family always took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for such troubles and they induced me to try it and it has helped me very much. I don't have cramps any more, and I can do my housework all through the month. I recommend your Vegetable Compound to my friends for female troubles." Mrs. DELIA SCHOLZ, 112 Salisbury Street, St. Louis, Mo.

Just think for a moment. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been in use for nearly fifty years. It is prepared from medicinal plants, by the utmost pharmaceutical skill, and superior methods. The ingredients thus combined in the Compound correct the conditions which cause such annoying symptoms as had been troubling Mrs. Scholz. The Vegetable Compound exercises a restorative influence of the most desirable character, correcting the trouble in a gentle but efficient manner. This is noted by the disappearance, one after another, of the disagreeable symptoms.

Many ambitious men and women live only half a life—and don't know it

No person whose nerves are continually irritated, whose appetite and digestion are disturbed, or who doesn't sleep well has more than half his normal chance for success in life. For weakness, debility, anemia and general lack of tone are a serious handicap to anybody.

Those who drink tea or coffee are often sufferers from these conditions. Tea and coffee contain caffeine, a substance which has a decided stimulant action on the nerves.

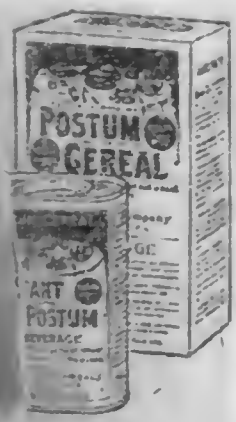

Each cup of strong coffee contains about as large a dose of caffeine as your doctor would ordinarily give to a very sick person.

You can readily see that the effect of giving this stimulant regularly to a well person might finally have a tendency to make him sick.

If you want to avoid a very common cause of irritation and enjoy restful sleep, good digestion, and the feeling of vigor and robust endurance that comes to healthy, normal people, quit tea and coffee, and drink Postum, instead. It is a rich, coffee-like cereal beverage—perfectly delicious!

Order Postum from your grocer today. Drink this fragrant, aromatic beverage and see how much better you'll feel—able to do more without becoming fatigued—as thousands have discovered for themselves.

Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes. Sold everywhere!
